- c. What other steps does the applicant propose to take aimed at promoting the responsible consumption of alcohol?
- d. What steps does the applicant propose to take to ensure that the requirements of the Act in relation to the sale of alcohol to prohibited persons (i.e. minors, intoxicated persons, other persons to whom alcohol may not be sold pursuant to the licence) are observed?
- e. To what extent, where, and how is drinking water intended to be freely available to patrons? (i.e. explain whether water is bar service only, water jugs, or plumbed water stations (and locations))
- f. What appropriate systems, staff and training does/will the applicant have in place to ensure compliance with the law?
- g. What are the current and possible future noise levels and how does the applicant intend to mitigate them?
- h. What are the current and possible future levels of nuisance and vandalism and how does the applicant intend to mitigate them?
- i. What other licensed premises are there in the vicinity of this proposed premises? And, will the granting of this licence contribute to an increase in alcohol related problems in the area? (Explain)
- j. What is the land near the proposed premises being used for? Will the granting of a licence for your premises impact on changing neighbouring land use? If so, in what way?

9. Host Responsibility

- b. What steps does the applicant propose to take to provide assistance with or information about alternative forms of transport from the premises, for staff and patrons?

The applicant will continue to provide clear information and assistance to staff and patrons regarding alternative transport options. Contact details for local taxi companies and rideshare services are prominently displayed at the premises, and staff are trained to assist patrons in arranging transport when needed. Signage promoting safe travel and discouraging drinking and driving is displayed throughout the premises, in line with the applicant's ongoing commitment to host responsibility. The applicant also provides a free courtesy van on certain days and times.

- c. What other steps does the applicant propose to take aimed at promoting the responsible consumption of alcohol?

All staff are trained in host responsibility and the responsible service of alcohol, with ongoing refresher training provided. Low-alcohol and non-alcoholic beverages are available at all times, and water is freely accessible to all patrons. The applicant enforces a strict policy around not serving intoxicated persons and closely monitors patron behaviour to identify and manage any issues early.

Signage promoting responsible drinking is displayed throughout the premises, and staff are encouraged to promote food consumption alongside alcohol. These measures form part of the applicant's commitment to creating a safe and responsible environment for patrons and staff.

- d. What steps does the applicant propose to take to ensure that the requirements of the Act in relation to the sale of alcohol to prohibited persons (i.e. minors, intoxicated persons, other persons to whom alcohol may not be sold pursuant to the licence) are observed?

All staff are trained in the requirements of the sale and supply Falcon Lecture 2012, with a focus on age verification procedures and the identification of signs of intoxication. Anyone who appears under 25 years of age will be required to produce valid identification, and staff are instructed to refuse service if acceptable ID is not provided. The premises operates a strict no ID no service policy staff are also trained to identify and refuse service to intoxicated persons and to manage such situations calmly and safely, including offering water or assistance with transport we have appropriate. Signage advising that alcohol will not be served to minors or intoxicated persons as clearly displayed on the premises the duty manager is always on-site during trading hours to supervise staff and to ensure compliance with these legal obligations.

- e. To what extent, where, and how is drinking water intended to be freely available to patrons? (i.e. explain whether water is bar service only, water jugs, or plumbed water stations (and locations)).

Drinking water is provided at the bar on request and via table service. A jug of water is also available at the service counter. Water jugs are regularly replenished, and staff are trained to ensure water availability is monitored throughout operating hours.

The applicant has appropriate systems, staff, and training in place to ensure ongoing compliance with the Act. All staff undergo training in host responsibility, the legal requirements for the sale and supply of alcohol, and how to identify and manage intoxication and underage patrons.

Training includes completion of the ServeWise online course on an annual basis, as well as additional modules delivered through the Typsy online hospitality training platform. Regular refresher sessions are also conducted in-house to ensure all staff remain up to date with legal obligations and best practices. The premises is always supervised by a certified Duty Manager responsible for overseeing compliance during trading hours. Systems are in place for verifying identification, monitoring patron behaviour, recording incidents, and ensuring service policies are followed.

The applicant is not aware of any concerns regarding noise at the premises, and the applicant intends to ensure this remains the case. The premises operates in a manner that respects neighbouring properties (although distant from the premises) and complies with all local noise regulations.

The premises is located in an industrial area with no immediate residential neighbours. This significantly reduces the likelihood of noise-related concerns. The applicant is committed to maintaining responsible noise management. Music and any amplified sound are kept at appropriate levels, and staff regularly monitor noise, particularly during events or busy periods, to ensure compliance with local regulations.

There are currently no issues with nuisance or vandalism at the premises, and the likelihood of such issues arising in the future is low due to its location in an industrial area with limited public activity and no immediate residential neighbours. However, the applicant remains proactive in managing the premises responsibly. Measures in place include good exterior lighting, CCTV surveillance, Code 9 Security monitoring, clear signage, and regular staff monitoring of the premises and surrounding area. Staff are trained to identify and respond to any inappropriate behaviour promptly. In the event that nuisance or vandalism does occur in the future, the applicant is committed to taking appropriate action, including liaising with local authorities, enhancing security measures, and adjusting operational practices if necessary, to ensure the premises remains safe, secure, and free of disturbances.

- i. What other licensed premises are there in the vicinity of this proposed premises? And, will the granting of this licence contribute to an increase in alcohol related problems in the area? (Explain)

Thirsty Liquor Bridgend across the road from the premises. It is unlikely that granting of the renewal would contribute to an increase in alcohol related problems in the area given the premises has existed in this locality for over 20 years. The applicant is not aware of any concerns by the way it has operated the premises to date.

- j. What is the land near the proposed premises being used for? Will the granting of a licence for your premises impact on changing neighbouring land use? If so, in what way?

The land near the proposed premises is primarily used for industrial purposes. There are no residential properties in the immediate vicinity, and the surrounding area consists of commercial and light industrial operations. The granting of a licence for the premises is not expected to impact neighbouring land use or hinder any future changes in land use. The nature of the business and its operation is compatible with the existing industrial environment, and the applicant is committed to operating in a manner that respects the surrounding businesses and maintains a low impact on the area.

14. Important to note — Renewal with Variation Lodgement and Invoicing

Please make an appointment with an Alcohol Licensing Inspector to lodge your new renewal with variation before you make payment. The inspector will confirm your risk rating and fees and if required re-issue your invoice for payment of fees.

Renewal with Variations will not be accepted without an Inspector Verification being completed.
